GREENSBORO TELEGRAM.

VOL. VII. NO. 108. GREENSBORO, N. C., WENDESDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1900. Price Five Cents

A FILIPINO STUDENT COMING.

HE WILL ARRIVE AT THE A. & M. ABOUT NEXT APRIL.

The College's Reputation Has Extended to the Utmost Bounds of Our Possesions and Brings a Student.

Greensboro will soon see a real Filippino. Not only will we see him, but he will make his habitat here for several years. President Dudley and his A. & M. College will bring the chieftian. Prof. Dudley had not gotten over the great elation that he felt on account of having taken a medal at the Paris Exposition before he had information that the reputation of his school had penetrated another section of the world, to-wit: The Philippine Islands.

This information was conveyed in a letter recently received, that President Pulido, of San Chex, Philippine Islands, had decided to enter his son in what he is pleased to call in his letter "the famous college of Greensboro."

President Pulido's son is expected to reach here about the first of April. Arrangements will be made for him to remain until graduation. The management of the college is very proud of the recognition that the work thus recently received from such remote sections as Paris on the one hand and the Philippine Islands on the other.

This may be the beginning of quite a patronage from the Philippines. It has been observed that when foreign students begin patronizing an institution in this country a large string of students follow. Thus, Oak Ridge, in this county, has had Japanese students for several years.

Scored Him With a Well Bucket.

As a weapon for knocking men down with the well bucket has taken precedence over the pumpkin. This fact was discovered yesterday afternoon at one of the Mayor's usual searching inquiries.

A man named Bell was up for an assault with deadly weapon, on one Mr. Scott who clerks in a Southside grocery store. According to the evidence Mr. Bell, with all his deadly weapons got the worst of the bargain—not counting his committal to Superior Court. He went into the store and wanted to cut Scott, but the latter made him put up his knife. After a bit he got it out again, whereupon Scott knocked him down and made a seat of him till he promised to behave himself. He said he would behave when he got up, and Scott went to 'phone for a policeman. Bell followed and cornered him, still wanting to use his knife. "Then," said Scott, 'I had nothing to fight with except two pumpkins and a well bucket, which were lying nearby, so I picked up the bucket and knocked him down." Then the cop came and got the knife man, and the well bucket went ahead of the pumpkins as a defensive weapon.

Methodist Protestant Minister Locates Here.

Rev. W. L. Harris, a Methodist Protestant minister, of Winston, is in the city, stopping at the Allen House. He will serve a church south of the city and will reside here. Mr. Harris recently purchased the W. S. Lyon place, on Cedar street, and will move there in a short time. Mr. Lyon will occupy his new home on Cedar street.

To Engage in the Wholesale Wine Business.

Mr. Chas. G. Harrison, connected with the Keeley Institute at this place for some time, left this morning for Littleton, where he will reside in the future. He will engage in the wholesale wine business with his father, Mr. H. S. Harrison. Mr. Harrison has made many friends during his stay in Greensboro who regret to lose him from their midst.

Dr. Stockard Here.

Dr. J. K. Stockard, who was a surgeon in the Second North Carolina Regiment, and has since been in the Philippines as surgeon in the volunteer army, arrived in this city last night on a visit to his family. He will return to his post in the Philippines after a short stay at home.

Mr. R. G. Fortune has decorated one of his windows with Christmas toys.

GATTIS-KILGO STILL A SIZZLING.

Not Only All the Talk Here, But in Charlotte and Elsewhere—What Will Conference-Do?

Not only are people still talking about the Gattis-Kilgo quarrel here, but everywhere in the State. The interest now centers in the question of what the coming Eastern Conference will do, of which both the gentlemen are members. The following from the Observer shows how the talk is going in Charlotte.

"The Gattis-Kilgo trial continues to be the topic of conversation in this city, not only among Methodists but among people of all denominations, and the invariable question that concludes every discussion of the subject is: How will the trial affect the Methodist church in this State—hurtfully or otherwise? To this most important phase of the litigation one of the senior members of the Charlotte bar averted yesterday and express apprehension lest the differing opinions over the result of the case might cause a break in the church. "Though I am not a Methodist," said he, "I am deeply sensible of the grand and glorious work that Church has done and is doing in this State, and it would be a calamity if the Gattis-Kilgo affair should be allowed to produce hard feelings in the ranks of the clergy and the lay members of the church. But I believe that the wisdom, conservatism and piety that prevail among the Methodists generally will easily tide them over an episode which is the warfare of two individuals and as such should not be permitted to hurt that great body—the Methodist Church—any more than a breath of wind."

"It is learned on good authority that Mr. Gattis will leave the North Carolina Conference in a few months and join this, the Western North Carolina Conference. He has long contemplated this step, holding that a great majority of the members of the former Conference have all along sustained Dr. Kilgo, while the sentiment in the latter body was almost entirely in his favor. As incidental to this statement it may be added that Mr. Gattis and his friends claim that he has the sympathy and support af the largest proportion of the lay members of the Church in all parts of the State.

"Mr. Gattis will leave this morning for Newbern to attend the North Carolina Conference. Dr. Kilgo will also be there. Mr. Gattis certainly expects the trial to come up in some form. How he does not know or cannot say.

"Those who have previously observed the deliberations of the Methodist Conferences are assured that if the Conference at Newbern takes up the Gattis-Kilgo affair they will deal with it in fairness and for the right. Yet the almost universally expressed—and friendly hope—in this city, at least, is that the Conference may keep "hands off" if the discipline of the Church may so allow. The case is a two-man fight and the Church may absolutely ignore its principals rather than let the one or the other prove injudicious."

"The Gold Mine."

The Woodward-Warren Company rendered a most excellent comedy last night, "The Gold Mine," typifying English life and the American abroad. The morale of the play was good, the parts well acted.

All through the play, which was one of pathos, there ran a stream of rippling mirth, wit, and humor in the part of Silas K. Wolcott (Guy Woodward).

The Academy was well filled and the audience never for a moment lost interest. The moral tone and personnel of these plays so far have been uplifting and stimulating, as well as instructive.

This afternoon at the matinee they produced The Paymaster, and this evening will give "The Great Diamond Mystery."

Dr. McIver's Plan.

Winston Sentinel.

The plan for raising this fund is to find 1,000 men and women who will give $100 each. It is stated that the plan was suggested to Dr. McIver sometime ago by a prominent North Carolinian, who asked to be allowed to head the list with a subscription of $100. Such a fund would accomplish great good and if any man in the State can raise it Dr. McIver is the man, and hence we expect him to succeed in this big undertaking.

DR. M'IVER'S ZEAL AND FAITH.

Warm Comment on the Plan for Raising $100,000 for Needy Girls.

News and Observer.

The effort to raise $100,000 for a loan fund at the State Normal and Industrial College ought to appeal to the people of the State. Not only are nearly all our colleges for women in the South without endowment, but the loan funds to be used to aid worthy students are insignificant as compared with similar funds to aid worthy young men at their colleges.

Many of our foremost citizens today were enabled to pay their college expenses by these loan funds, and some of them could have secured the necessary funds in no other way.

If this is true of boys and men how much more is it true of their sisters. The most effective philanthropy is that which enables a young student to help himself or herself.

The plan adopted to raise the $100,000 at the State Normal and Industrial College ought to appeal to people of moderate means as well as to the wealthy. Every person who subscribes $100 is instrumental in raising $100,000 and is under no obligation to pay his $100 unless the $100,000 is raised.

The interest on this fund will educate fifty girls a year in this institution, which in its short existence has come to be second to no institution for the education of women in the South.

We congratulate Dr. McIver upon his zeal and faith and trust that he will receive the early co-operation of hundreds who see the need for a fair chance for the girls of the State.

IN EVERYWAY ADMIRABLE.

An Eminent Citizen Writes That Dr. McIver's Plan Will Develop and Strengthen Philanthrophic Impulses.

Replies to the announcement of Dr. C. D. McIver's plan to raise $100,000 in $100 subscriptions have already begun to come in. One well known citizen of the State, in enclosing his subscription writes as follows:

"Your plan to raise an endowment fund of $100,000 by 1000 subscriptions of $100 each is in every way admirable. It will enable men and women of very limited means to have a hand in the great work you are doing, and will doubtless develop and strengthen philanthropic impulses which are now lying dormant for lack of stimulus and opportunity.

"In admiration of the excellent institution which you founded and which you with your faithful and efficient colleagues are managing with rare skill, zeal, and wisdom, and from a desire to contribute to the education of the women of North Carolina and the elevation of the home, I beg to be enrolled among your subscribers. May the full number soon be completed."

Till Judge Schenck Vindicated Them.

Judge Walter Clark in Orphan's Friend.

This State acted a grand part in the Revolution. As shown by the first census in 1790, North Carolina stood third in population, leading Pennsylvania and New York and surpassed only by Virginia and Massachusetts. Her contribution in men and money was therefore a most essential one to the success of the common cause. But few who read the history of those times will find much mention made of North Carolina. At the critical battle of Guilford Court House, when Green broke the power of Cornwallis, her militia retreated only in obedience to orders, but for more than a century their fame was covered with ignominy, until Judge Schenck, with patriot hand, completely vindicated them.

A Double Killing in Alabama.

Selma, Ala., Dec. 4.—News has been received in this city of a double killing in Wheeler's Store, a small settlement in Lowndes county. George Wheeler shot and instantly killed A. Waldorp and Calvin Harris, both white men. Waldrop had been farming on shares for Wheeler and went to his store to have a settlement. Some dispute arose over money matters at the time and Wheeler says Harris tried to reach a Winchester rifle which was laying on a counter when he shot him dead.

Mr. L. Barbee, has accepted a position with the Southern Loan & Trust Co. He will look after the cafe.

RITELESS BURIAL DISCOVERED

THE BODY OF AN INFANT FOUND IN WOODS NEAR FINISHING MILLS.

Foul Play Was Suspected, But by an Investigation by the Police it Was Found Not to Be—A Tiny Body in a Pine Box Buried Near the Surface.

A ripple of talk was caused this morning by the report that the police had found a dead infant buried in the woods just west of the Finishing Mills. The report proved true except that there was no foul play in connection with the matter.

The dogs of some one out hunting found the spot, and not knowing what was buried the person reported the matter to Mr. William Thomas, who went out to investigate. He ran a stick into the hole that the dogs had made and found that a box was buried there. Reporting the matter to the police, Chief Scott went out to see about it. He found a small pine box containing the remains of an infant which evidently had died soon after birth. The box was buried only about eighteen inches deep, and was not a coffin at all. There was every reason to believe a crime had been committed, but the Chief upon inquiry found to the contrary. He inquired of a boy who happened to be passing if he knew anything about the matter, and found that a white man named George Peoria, a German, who had been working at the Finishining Mill but now works at the Revolution, had buried the body. The man was then found, and said that the infant was born alive but lived only a short time, and the mill people who own the land had given him permission to bury it there. This proved true.

It is a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of $25 to bury a body in the incorporate limits without a burial permit. The man was told to have the body properly buried, which he promised to do.

HOW THEY MARKET IN PEKIN.

OBSERVATIONS OF AN AMERICAN IN THE CITY.

The Effect of the Presence of the United States Soldiers—The Disgusting, Pathetic and Ludicrous Things One May See by Getting Up Early.

Staff Correspondence of the New York Sun.

Pekin, Oct. 1.—The Chinaman rises early and spends the sunrise hour in noisy activity. If he has something to sell then is the time he goes forth. Standing beside his wheelbarrow of produce or hopping along with baskets swung from his shoulder, he emits his peculiar shriek. Imagine a street jammed with such men all cackling and shouting at the same time, and the buyers yelling and gesticulating in chorus, and you have Pekin on a clear morning.

Market time is between 5 and 7 o'clock and the market place is any street. At the invitation of Captain John C. F. Tillson, provost marshal of the American district in the Southern city, I rose betimes to witness the sight of the busiest market in Pekin. The sun's rays had scarcely begun to slant down over the roofs of the low houses when I made my way into the long cross street of variable widths which divides Germany from the United States. From doorways on the right hung small flags of black, red and white—the emblem signifying "under German protection." On the left fluttered at intervals white bits of muslin on each of which a rude "U. S. A" had been inscribed. All troops save the United States brought with them an abundance of flags. Outside of the regimental colors and a few garrison flags, the United States troops brought not enough emblems to decorate the premises the men occupy. Now an order has been sent home for 4,000 small American flags and in the meantime the Chinese who desire to designate the nation to which they look for protection must hang up home-made emblems or white cloth with "U. S. A."

The market section of the street is full of people. And what a throng it is! It is comical and also pathetic. Here are starving beings exchanging a few brass cash for their morning meal, gulping down greasy dumplings and snatching at bits of boiled tripe. Clothing merchants are displaying their stocks of wadded clothing, silk gowns and fur robes to wistful crowds Market gardeners are disposing of great bunches of onions and lettuce. A weazened lad in ragged clothing is circulating about shouting at the top of his voice in a vain endeavor to sell sunflower seeds from a tray at his waist. A seething, noisy, dusty crowd absorbs every inch of the street and stretches for hundreds of yards in either direction. Right in the dust by your feet are the wares laid down with their keepers squatting over them and endeavoring with all the noisy power of their lungs to entice the money from the pockets of the buyers.

You can buy a horseshoe nail, brand new or second-hand, a battered clock or the age-worn picture of somebody's Chinese aunt. A rare piece of China ware reposes next to a jar of loud-smelling pickles. You can purchase Chinese literature by the arm load. Help yourself to a slice of that huge, muddy-looking flapjack laid out on a board and leave two cash in payment. For one cash, a tenth of a cent, you can buy three long green onions, four dates or a mouthful of roast beef hacked off the mother chunk by a huge knife in the hands of the vendor. Up and down serges the crowd—a great sea of black heads and queues. A pall of thick heavy dust adds confusion to the scene. The blind beggar women, groveling in the dirt, bob their foreheads to the ground and entreat the "Elao-yehs" for a penny.

The sun creeps higher and higher. It is 7 o'clock. The crowd is thinning away at the edges. One by one the merchants are gathering their wares into a cloth and slinking away. The screeching and calling goes on. The American soldier patrol, gun a-shoulder, now finds his beat less blocked. Soon he begins to signal and gesticulate as he goes along. The centre of the street must now be vacated for the travel of the day. By 9 o'clock the sides of the street only are occupied by the late bargainers, and by 10 the place is at its normal.

When the American Government began in earnest in two quarters of Pekin and Captain Tillson of the Fourteenth Infantry, and Major Waller of the Marine Corps, were appointed provost marshals, word was sent around to all shopkeepers that they must open their doors and begin business in order that the sufferings of the poor might be alleviated. When the majority of the timid ones neglected to do is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking spot, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been to low and are just now getting reasonable. Your children will be glad to build at double the price it now costs you. It is a trite, but true saying, if you want to build, "Now is the time."

Scrofula

THE OFFSPRING OF HEREDITARY BLOOD TAINT.

Scrofula is but a modified form of Blood Poison and Consumption. The parent who is tainted by either will see in the child the same disease manifesting itself in the form of swollen glands of the neck and throat, catarrh, weak eyes, offensive sores and abscesses and oftentimes white swelling—sure signs of Scrofula. There may be no external signs for a long time, for the disease develops slowly in some cases, but the poison is in the blood and will break out at the first favorable opportunity. S. S. S. cures this wasting, destructive disease by first purifying and building up the blood and stimulating and invigorating the whole system.

J. M. Seals, 115 Public Square, Nashville, Tenn., says: "Ten years ago my daughter fell and cut her forehead. From this wound the glands on the side of her face became swollen and bursted. Some of the best doctors here and elsewhere attended her without any benefit. We decided to try S. S. S., and a few bottles cured her entirely."

SSS makes new and pure blood to nourish and strengthen the body, and is a positive and safe cure for Scrofula. It overcomes all forms of blood poison, whether inherited or acquired, and no remedy so thoroughly and effectively cleanses the blood. If you have any blood trouble, or your child has inherited some blood taint, take S. S. S. and get the blood in good condition and prevent the disease doing further damage.

TAR HEEL Cough Syrup, it cures. 25c.

A GOOD THING.

German Syrup is the special prescription of Dr. A. Boschee, a celebrated German physician, and is acknowledged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in medicine. It quickly cures coughs, colds and all lung troubles of the severest nature, removing, as it does, the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition. It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, which its rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two million bottles sold annually. Boschee's German Syrup was introduced in the United States in 1868, and is now sold in every town and village in the civilized world. Three doses will relieve any ordinary cough. Price 75 cts. Get Green's Prize Almanac.

Grissom & Fordham.

Now is the time when croup and lung troubles prove rapidly fatal. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results is One Minute Cough Cure. It is very pleasant to take and can be relied upon to quickly cure coughs, colds and all lung diseases. It will prevent consumption. Howard Gardner.

GOOD ADVICE.

The most miserable things in the world are those suffering from dyspepsia and liver complaint. More than seventy-five per cent. of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects: such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual costiveness, palpitation of the heart, heart-burn, waterbrash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of food after eating, low spirits, etc. Go to your druggist and get a bottle of August Flower for 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you. Try it. Get Green's Prize Almanac.

RHEUMATISM—CATARRH—DISEASES CURED BY B. B. B.

It is the deep-seated, obstinate cases of catarrh and rheumatism that B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) cures. It matters not what other treatments, doctors, sprays, liniments, medicated air blood purifiers, have failed to do, B. B. B. always promptly reaches the real cause and roots out and drives from the bones, joints, mucuous membrane, and entire system the specific poison in the blood that causes rheumatism and catarrh. B. B. B. is the only remedy strong enough to do this and cure ond so there can never be a return to the symptoms. Don't give up hope, but try B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) or 3 Bs.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 5.

GAY BUT FOOLISH.

General Mercer yesterday got on a high horse in the French Senate and declared that the invasion of England could be easily accomplished by the French army, and then spoke of war with the British Lion. The French are a gay folk. They have cheerfully undertaken to crush England many a time, but today England is growing and France is dying. Napoleon carried an army to Egypt once to break the Empire's back, but before the task was done he had deserted his soldiers, run the British blockade, and left his army in the land of the Sphinx to be taken at the Englishmen's leisure. They have as cheerfully made attacks upon their neighbors with even more disastrous results. When the little Emperor broke faith with Alexander, of Russia, half a million of Frenchmen marched gaily to Moscow to throttle the Bear in his lair, but their bones bleached on the foreign soil and the Emperor's power was broken. Unmindful of the lessons of defeat, France, with gay music and flaunting banners, thirty years ago, went over the border to disrupt and humiliate the Germans but she found Sedan instead, and in a few short weeks Paris begged mercy of Van Moltke. Oh yes, France may some day invade England, nothing more probable, but when she does a large part of her gay soldiers will find graves across the channel or at its bottom, and the others will return as captives return.

Germany's attitude is as distinctly one for pie as was that of a whilom North Carolina Populist. Some time ago when she was somewhat out with England and hoped for something as a result of the South African war, she was coquetting with Oom Paul on all occasions. Now she is in accord with England on the China question and knows, too, that there is no bone for her in South Africa, and so she gives Oom Paul the cold stare.

We notice that yesterday in the Cuban constitutional assembly, now in session in Havana, three complete constitutions were submitted by general Rivera, Senor De Quesda and the colored general, Morua, respectively. This is a modest beginning. We expect to see three hundred presented before the thing is over. And then Uncle Sam will have to take the matter in hand and give them such an one as they need.

We, along with other friends of the cause, are gratified with the favorable reception that Dr. McIver's plans for raising $100,000 for needy girls, has met throughout the State. We have it, too, that the people of this city to whom the proposition is being presented, are receiving it in the genuine way—with their subscriptions.

We wish we were in France so that we could raise our hat to the brave old Kruger, the dethroned President of the Transvaal.—Burlington News.

We should prefer to be there for the purpose of taking a whirl in gay Paree.

The sweet, solemn notes of

"And are we yet alive
And see each other's face, which opened the Conference at Newbern yesterday were not an indication of the stormy times that may follow when the Gattis-Kilgo affair comes up.

The Asheville Citizen has been copying fall poetry from some source and crediting it to The Telegram. We warn The Citizen to beware, with the last word sizzling through our clinched teeth.

A MILLIONAIRE'S SACRIFICE.

Fearlessly Risks His Own Life to Save Others—Loses Both Legs and May Die.

Altoona, Pa., Dispatch, 2d.

H. B. Goodman, a Chicago millionaire, who has been in this region placing machinery in his mines, was hurt mortally in an accident at Vintondale shaft last night. Mr. Goodman had gone down into the pit to direct the setting of mining machines. When about half way down a 500-foot slope a car on the incline broke from the chain rigging and started down into the mine. Mr. Goodman, Superintendent Claghorn of the mine and several laborers were caught in a narrow part of the shaft where escape was impossible. With courage, Goodman, who was familiar with mining machines, ran a pneumatic digger out on the tramway, but in doing so was caught in the wreck of the runaway car with the machine. Both his legs were crushed and he lay pinioned in the darkness until the men whose lives he saved by his courage were enabled to dig him out of the debris of twisted iron and fallen rock. Two of the laborers were slightly hurt by falling rock.

Mr. Goodman was removed to the Hospital at Johnstown, where both his legs were amputated. He is perfectly conscious and pleased that he saved all the party from a horrible death. The hospital surgeons fear that his life cannot be saved.

May Now Switch With Impunity.

Durham Herald.

Mr. Gattis can now switch that coattail with impunity every time he passes Dr. Kilgo on the street.

A Worthy Undertaking.

Statesville Landmark.

Dr. McIver hopes to raise the money by finding 1,000 persons in the State who will give $100 each to this fund. It is a worthy undertaking and The Landmark hopes that Dr. McIver will succeed.

A Handspring and a Double-Shuffle.

Statesville Landmark.

It is rumored that when the news of the verdict in the Kilgo-Gattis case reached Raleigh and Reidsville that the Hon. Walter Clark turned a handspring and the Hon. Jno. R. Webster went into the back yard and executed a double-shuffle.

Burlington News.

The Asheville Gazette says that T. J. Frisbee, a practicing physician, minister of the gospel, lawyer, justice of the peace, and in '94 the nominee of the Democratic party for the Legislature in Madison county, has been found guilty in the Federal Court on the charge of having sold liquor without license. It was done in the regulation way. The "moonshine" would be left on the side of the hill and the man who wanted the whiskey would get the jug and leave the money in its place. The sentence was imprisonment for three months and $200 and costs.

NOT VERSED IN ROMANCE.

Manuscript of Scott's "Ivanhoe" Was Rejected by Many London Publishers.

By way of practical joke a typewritten copy of Scott's "Ivanhoe" was recently sent the rounds of the London publishers, under the title, "When John Was England's King." It was returned in every case. The London Academy amuses itself by imagining the form taken by the letters of rejection. It thinks Messrs. Macmillan might have written somewhat like this:

"Messrs. Macmillan & Co. regret to have to return 'When John Was England's King,' but they fear that interest in historical fiction is diminishing. Their reader's report of the story is in the main favorable, but he points out that the charge of imitating 'The Forest Lovers,' one of Messrs. Macmillan's recent publications, might perhaps be difficult to rebut. In his opinion the author of 'When John Was England's King' would perhaps have made a better and more readable book had he studied Mr. Hewlett more carefully."

Here is another burlesque letter:

"Mr. John Murry begs to return the MS. of 'When John Was England's King,' and to quote a passage from his reader's report thereon: 'I do not recommend this novel, although it is painstaking and thorough. The author would, I think, have been wiser had he chosen another name for his hero. Ivanhoe has already been used by Sir Walter Scott.'"

DEATH IN CUPS AND GLASSES.

Americans Warned Against Using Silver-Mounted Drinking Vessels from Abroad.

Walter Schumann, United States consul at Mainz, has called the attention of the state department to the danger to the health of persons using silver-mounted glasses and porcelain wares. He says a Frankfort newspaper some time ago called attention to the fact that certain kinds of silver-mounted and porcelain wares, such as cups, glasses, jars, vases, etc., had been placed upon the market.

"The silver on these articles," he says, "is applied by means of a galvanoplastic process in baths which contain large quantities of potassium cyanide. As glazed wares have innumerable hair-like cracks, this deadly poison enters these cracks, and the articles, beautiful to look at, become a severe menace to the health of anybody using or handling them, and especially as it is impossible in the course of manufacture to remove this poisonous residuum.

"Only a short time ago a very severe case of poisoning resulted from the use of such ware. I am told that these goods are chiefly exported to the United States from Frankfort, Berlin and Stuttgart. It might be well for the public to be informed of the danger in these goods, and steps might be taken to prohibit their sale."

The width of a flash of lightning has been measured by Mr. George Rumker, of the Hamburg observatory. A photograph was secured last August as lightning struck a tower a third of a mile away, and from the distance of the tower and the focal distance of the camera objective was possible to calculate the breadth of the discharge shown in the picture. It has been determined that the flash was one-fifth of an inch wide. Ramifications shown in the photograph on each side of the main discharge are attributed to the strong gale that was blowing, the phenomena appearing like a silk ribbon with shreds floating in the wind.

REV. J. WM. JONES.

The lecture entitled "The Boys in Gray" which is to be given here next Friday night by the Rev. J. Wm. Jones will do every man, woman and child in Greensboro good. Let every old Veteran and every Daughter of the Confederacy be on hand.

The Nashville Banner thus spoke of Dr. Jones' lecture on "The Boys in Gray:" "There is a distinct personality about this man which from the moment he begins to speak makes itself felt by all the hearers, and it is impossible to resist its influence. He seems bubbling over with good humor and contentment, and whether he spoke of the prosperous days of the Confederacy or the dark days of '64 he always carried his audience right with him, their humor changing with his. It was such men as Dr. Jones who made the Confederate army what it was; men who were happy when they had plenty, and contented in the knowledge that they were fighting for their freedom when they were starved and ragged.

"The man who lectured last night had been all through it, from '61 to 65, and he knew the Confederate Private like a book."

ATTRACTIVE EXHIBIT.

That of Foods and Their Accessories, Including Pan-American Spices.

A very dainty pamphlet has been issued by the Division of Foods and Their Accessories of the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo. The food work at the Pan-American comes under the general department of Horticulture, Forestry and Food Products, of which Mr. Frederic W. Taylor is superintendent. Mr. G. Edward Fuller, as assistant superintendent, has entire charge of the Division of Foods and Their Accessories, and he has prepared himself for unusual work in this line by special travel and study such as no one else probably ever undertook with the same object. This pamphlet calls the attention of jobbers of teas, coffees and spices and all dealers in food products generally and their accessories to the interesting, useful and educational work in their lines of business which is going on for the Pan-American Exposition of 1901.

The assistant superintendent, Mr. Fuller, says: "In the far east there are foods and condiments of which we are almost utterly ignorant here, and one of the aims of the food exhibit will be to educate the people of the western hemisphere to the cultivation of the products which flourish in the east. It will be my aim to show how simple and profitable it would be, for instance, to grow in the West Indies what is grown in the East Indies. The climate and soil conditions are remarkably similar, and the conditions are favorable.

"The best proof obtainable or desirable that the soil and the climate of the West Indies is as favorable as that of the East Indies for the production of spices is already available. The products now received from the West Indies are not equaled by those from any other section of the world. At the present time they grow better allspice, ginger and red pepper there than anywhere else on the globe, and the vanilla bean, which is queen of spices, as the nutmeg is king, is found nowhere in the world in such perfection as in Mexico. The coffee grown in Mexico has a flavor obtainable in no other coffee, not even the Mocha or Java surpassing it. Emperor William of Germany appreciates that fact, and all of the coffee used in the royal household is sent from our nearby republic. Venezuelan cacao, from which chocolate is made, is superior to the East Indian product.

"With the view of massing together in one effective, instructive and useful exhibit the economic plants, vines and trees of tropical Pan-America which produce teas, coffees, spices and kindred things, it has been decided to appropriate considerable space at the

SEAL OF PAN-AMERICAN EXPOSITION.

Pan-American Exposition for their display on a scale never before attempted. To show this interesting collection to the best advantage an attractive conservatory has been provided, while a museum, as an annex to this, will contain finished products as well as rare and curious articles to illustrate a variety of features under the head of 'Foods and Their Accessories.'

"It is a fact well known to experts in exhibition matters that a scattered display of special articles loses force, while a condensed exhibit of a line of things pertaining to a specific subject becomes educational. Now, as the object is to increase the production and promote the consumption of the things called for, much trouble and expense is justified in making this collection unique and unparalleled.

"It is intended to make the exhibit of red peppers the finest and most extensive collection ever made, with the object of demonstrating by special exhibit connected with the 'accessories of food' that Pan-America can produce all the red peppers consumed in Pan-America. It is perhaps only known to experts that vast quantities of red peppers are imported from Europe, Asia and Africa every year because Pan-Americans are not actively alive to their own interest in this important matter."

One of Many Enthusiasts.

Joe Mitchell Chapple, editor of The National Magazine, published at Boston, was in Buffalo recently and became much interested in the Exposition. On his return to Boston he wrote to an official of the Exposition as follows: "I was indeed sorry not to have seen you when in Buffalo, but I did see the Exposition and was astonished beyond measure. I wish that you would send on anything that you think might be of interest to our readers and make it as attractive as possible, and I shall keep on hammering away at the Exposition editorially until it opens, because I am thoroughly enthused over the subject."

Brazil to Be Represented.

The Brazilian government early in the season sent out invitations to all agricultural and industrial societies to prepare articles for exhibition at the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo in 1901. A large number of coffee producers have agreed to send a full line of samples of the best Brazilian grades of this commodity.

Wisconsin's Building.

Commissioners from Wisconsin, who have charge of the exhibits from that state at the Pan-American Exposition, have selected a site for the State building. About 20 acres have been set apart on the eastern side of the Exposition grounds for state and foreign buildings. The site chosen for the Wisconsin building is nearly opposite the large buildings of the National governments just south of one of the mirror lakes and south of the Ohio building. It will overlook the Esplanade, with its wonderful fountains and gardens, and a number of the large buildings will be in full view. The Wisconsin commission are Willard A. Van Brunt and George B. Burrows of Madison, B. E. Edwards of Lacrosse, Charles Reynolds of Sturgeon Bay and George H. Yule of Kenosha. Wisconsin will spend $25.000 on her building and exhibits at Buffalo.

A $6.000 A. O. U. W. Building.

The Ancient Order of United Workmen are planning elaborately to welcome the members of the order to Buffalo next year. The Supreme Lodge has appropriated $3.000 and the State Lodge $3.000 more to be used for the erection and furnishing of a fine headquarters building at the Pan-American Exposition. The Supreme Lodge will meet in Buffalo next year. The building is a handsome pavilion, with rooms for rest, and the upper floor a great balcony, with easy chairs, for all members of the order who attend the Exposition.

A NIGHT OF TERROR.

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning" writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. "All thought that she must soon die from pneumonia, but she begged for Dr. Kings New Discovery, saying that it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of consumption. After three doses she slept easily all night, and its further use completely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all throat, chest and lung diseases. Only 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Help is needed at once when a person's life is in danger. A neglected cough or cold may soon become serious and should be stopped at once. One Minute Cough Cure quickly cures coughs and colds and the worst cases of croup, bronchitis, grippe and other throat and lung troubles. Howard Gardner.

COLD STEEL OR DEATH.

"There is but one small chance to save your life and that is through an operation," was the awful prospect set before Mrs. I. B. Hunt, of Lime Ridge, Wis, by her doctor after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jauntice. He didn't count on the marvellous power of Electric Bitters to cure stomach and liver troubles, but she heard of it, took seven bottles, was wholly cured, avoided surgeon's knife, now weighs more and feels better than ever. It's positively guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney troubles and never disappoints. Price 50c at C. E. Holton's drug store.

8101—Child's Dress.
2, 4 and 6 years.

CHILD'S DRESS, NO. 8101.

Pale pink albatross is here daintily associated with heavy white lace over taffeta.

The dress is simply adjusted with shoulder and under-arm seams and closes in the center back. The straight yoke is faced with lace in rounded outline.

The fullness back and front is arranged in box plaits, at the lower edge of the yoke a smooth effect being maintained under the arms. It is finished with two rows of insertion around the bottom.

The bertha is shaped in scallops, back and front, extending out over the sleeves in a becoming manner. It is applied to outline the round yoke of lace and finished with a narrow frill.

The sleeves are shaped with upper and under portions, having slight fullness at the shoulders. They are completed with lace cuffs which turn back from the hands.

Attractive little frocks in this mode may be developed in silk, crepe de chine, poplin, Henrietta or Venetian with velvet, lace, applique, silk or fancy braids for decoration.

To make the dress for a child of four years will require two and one-half yards of forty-four inch material with five-eights yard of twent-inch material for yoke, standing collar, bertha, collar and cuffs. The pattern, No. 8101, is cut in sizes for children two, four and six years.

NOTE THIS

The law should insist that every gasoline or kerosene stove should be hung a placaed saying: "In case of fire do not use water but throw on flour."

The fire from kerosene or gasoline will be more widely distributed by throwing on water, but flour smothers it at once. A fire drill should be instituted in every home. Children should be taught and frequently examined as to their knowledge of how to put out fire in a room or on the burning clothes of a person. Everybody in the family should not only receive this training, but should know last which are the most valuable things to be first removed in case the fire cannot be extinguished. A little drill will insure more presence of mind and more judicious action, and with a fire extinguisher, the household may feel comparatively safe.—Philadelphia Ledger.

A MONSTER DEVIL FISH

Destroying its victim, is a type of constipation. The power of this murderous malady is felt on organs and nerves and muscles and brain. There is no health till it's overcome. But Dr. King's New Life Pills are a safe and certain cure. Best in the world for stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Only 25 cents at C. E. Holton's drug store.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are dainty little pills, but they never fail to cleanse the liver, remove obstructions and invigorate the system. Howard Gardner.

When you need a soothing and healing antiseptic application for any purpose, use the original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, a well known cure for piles and skin diseases. It heals sores without leaving a scar. Beware of imitations. Howard Gardner.

WINE OF CARDUI

Woman's Crowning Virtue.

BELTON, Mo., July 27.
For years I suffered terrible pains every month and my doctor told me I could not be cured except by an operation. I felt I could not submit to that and was so despondent I had given up all hopes of a cure. My husband insisted on my trying Wine of Cardui and at last thank God I did try it. Last month I did not have a pain, and did all my work, which I had not done in seven years.
MRS. MINNIE LITTLE.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

Modesty is the crowning virtue of American women. It is the trait that all mankind admires. A modest woman is the most pleasing of all created things. Because of this becoming virtue thousands of women prefer to suffer untold miseries rather than confide their troubles to a physician, and to even think of submitting to an examination is revolting. They can't get their own consent to an operation. Wine of Cardui permits sensitive women to retain their modesty. With it they can cure "female troubles" in the quiet of their own rooms. If special treatment is required they can write to the Advisory Department of the Chattanooga Medicine Co., and their letters will be promptly answered by women trained in the cure of womanly weaknesses and irregularities. There should be no hesitation. Delayed treatment means a chronic condition. The longer postponed the harder to cure.

Greene McAdoo, whose restaurant on Ashe street has been called dispensary No. 2, was committed on another charge of retailing yesterday afternoon.

Messrs. W. F. Clegg & Bro. have moved their produce store to the room adjoining Clegg's Bakery. Rhodes' barber shop now occupies their former stand.

Col. Jim West has gotten into the tobacco trust. He has a $150 job of posting large bills advertising Duke, Cross Cut and Columbia cigarettes, and will cover Greensboro, Winston, High Point and Burlington.

Rev. R. R. Moore has discovered another spring on his place near the Normal. He has had the water analyzed by the State chemist, who finds it contains calcium carbonate, chlorine, free ammonia, albuminoid ammonia and nitrogen as nitrates, and adds that "this indicates this to be a good water."

Oxford Friend: While in Greensboro recently our representative spent a day and night in the hospitable home of Bro. Sam Browne, one of the very best friends to the Oxford Orphan Asylum. Brother Browne loves the cause and he shows his love for it by giving to it his time, means, and earnest efforts. He is a member of the Asylum committee of Greensboro Lodge.

Chief Scott wanted John Burton for for retailing and found that he had moved to his country villa till the present scare blows over. Policeman Merritt went after him and while accompanying him back John said that he got the whiskey from Tom Turner. Now Tom was the very fellow wanted as he had been eluding detection, and so on this information he was pulled.
